Cache Valley to Witness First. Campaigning.

KING STARTS TUESDAY

BAMMOND FOLLOWS HIM ON WEDNESDAY.

Partial Itinerary Mapped Out For Democratic Nominee Who Will Be Assisted All Along the Line by David C. Dunbar, Who Was Defeated in the Convention.

Cache valley has been chosen as the ground upon which is to be fought the first battle for Utah's vacant seat in congress. By rare coincidence both Democrats and Republicans hit upon Logan as the place, and they lacked but one day of hitting upon the same

Judge King will speak in Logan on Plesday evening, March 6, and James Mammond, his opponent, will follow in Wednesday evening, March 7, Judge

T. Hammond, his opponent, will follow on Wednesday evening, March 7. Judge King will be accompanied in his Cache valley itinerary by David C. Dunbar, his rival for the nomination in the Democratic convention.

Mr. Dunbar accepts his defeat as a good Democrat should; he has turned his guns upon the common enemy, and will leave no stone unturned to secure the triumphant election of Judge King to congress. He will speak from the same platform with the judge at every point visited in Cache county.

point visited in Cache county.

The Republicans have arranged definitely only for the Logan meeting, at which Mr. Hammond will be the chief speaker. Other speakers from this city will also speak at this meeting, among them, no doubt, Postmaster Thomas, who is considered one of the great Republican orators of the state.

who is considered one of the great Republican orators of the state.

An effort will also be made to have Reed Smott of Provo at this opening meeting. Colonel George B. Squires, who made such a hit in nominating Hammond, will be used on the stump throughout the campaign.

Judge King's Itinerary. Judge King's itinerary for next week, in company with Mr. Dunbar, will be as follows:

in company with Mr. Dunbar, will be as follows:

Mendon, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock; Logan, Tuesday evening at 7:30; Wednesday, Providence, at 11 in the morning; Millville at 2 in the afternoon; Hyrum and Wellsville in the evening. Thursday, Hyde Park, at 2 in the afternoon, and Smithfield in the evening; Friday, Lewiston, at 2 in the afternoon, and Richmond in the evening. The judge and Mr. Dunbar will be assisted by local speakers, among others H. J. Matthews, Joseph Munson, I. C. Trosesen and F. K. Nebeker.

The programme for the speaking campaign from 'hat stated above has not been decided upon by the state committee. It is the intention to put a number of speakers on the stump.

The Republicans have not decided upon their plan of campaign.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEET.

Able Paper Read Yesterday By Miss Holton.

At the meeting of the county school At the meeting of the county school teachers yesterday morning in the university building, an excellent haper was read by Miss Adelaide Holton on "Monotonies in School Work." The subject was handled in an able manner, being considered from full the points of view possible. The main point emphasized was that 3 teacher must live up to the ideals that he expounds, if he would have his teachings have any effect.

Superintendent Van Cott, who pre-sided at the meeting, made a spirited sided at the meeting, made a spirited appeal for more earnest work among the schools. He deprecated the growing tendency in the schools to entertain rather than to encourage work of the kind that counts. A general discussion was held by the trachers, and the meeting adjourned for two weeks.

Interesting Event Scheduled For Tuesday Night.

The reception that is to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening promises to be an interesting event.

promises to be an interesting event. For weeks past the arrangements committee has been working to get the arfairs in shape, and it gives promise of being the biggest event of the year in the Y. M. C. A. work. An excellent programme has been prepared.

Selections will be rendered by W. R. Sibley, Miss Craig, Miss Edna Brown and Bert Zurgetts. The Grand theatre orchestra will furnish the music for the evening. Following the programme, the gymnasium will be the scene of an athletic carnival by some thirty of Professor Augustus' trained athletes.

Quiet at pMontreal.

Montreal, March 3.—It was feared that there would be a renewal of the students' demonstration tonight, and the police and military were kept in readiness to quell any disturbance, but the night passed without any serious trouble. A small party of young Englishmen paraded the streets, carrying a union jack, and several free fights took place, but the police quickly dispersed the crowd. The trouble is apparently at an end.

Dubuque, Ia., March 2-At 1 o'clock this morning Archbishop Hennessy re-ceived his third paralytic stroke. It was light, but terribly suggestive of the end. It is hardly possible that he can last much longer. Had Another Paralytic Stroke.
